Corpus Christi CWL

THANK YOU, THANK YOU to everyone who helped to make our Pancake Breakfast a big success!! Thank you to the Knights, Sisters of the Catholic Women's League, The Youth Group and to everyone who took the time to join us for this Parish event. This is the best way we can get to know each other and share good company and a laugh. A meal brings people together and it is a good opportunity to obtain information about our Parish. Thanks again! We made a profit of $265.50; this money was donated back to the church. The deadline to pay your membership of $30.00 for Catholic Women's League is February 28th. You can pay your membership by dropping it off at the church office or by placing it in an envelope with name, address, and phone number in the collection basket at church when attending Mass. Thank you for your continuing support. Jeannette Dann, President CWL – 807-472-9347 if you have any questions or concerns.

Sacramental Preparation Sessions

Any outstanding registrations must be submitted to the parish office before sessions begin. Registration forms may be found on our parish website or by contacting the parish office.

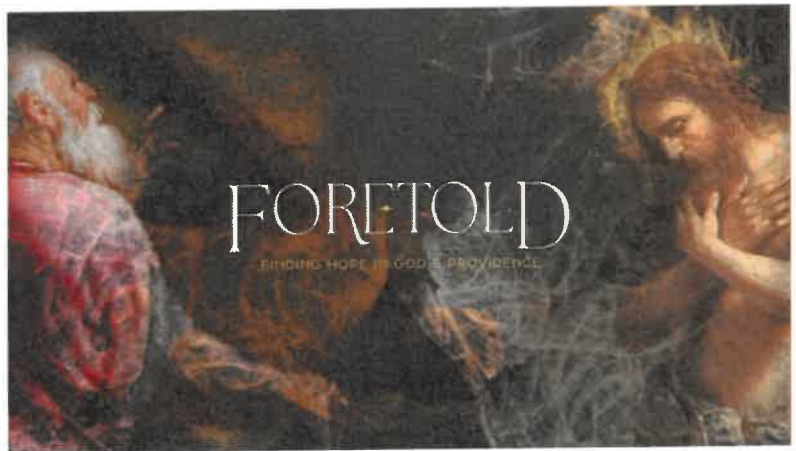

Light the Province Blue

February 22 is a day for all Canadians to raise awareness about the magnitude of modern-day slavery in Canada and around the world, and to take action to combat human trafficking. Human trafficking is the exploitation of another person for profit through force, manipulation, or coercion. It includes many forms of exploitation, such as sexual exploitation and forced labour.

On this day, we are encouraged to wear blue — the colour of hope and vigilance in the fight against human trafficking — and to find meaningful ways to raise awareness in our communities.

The Provincial Council of the Catholic Women's League of Canada has initiated the "Light the Province Blue" challenge.
